

Maryland Overdose Response Program (ORP)

Online training now available

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene's (DHMH) Behavioral Health Administration partnered with the National Development and Research Institutes, Inc. to make available an existing online training and certificate module for Maryland ORP.

Individuals using a Maryland zip-code to register for the online training will receive an ORP certificate upon completion of the training. An ORP certificate allows individuals to obtain naloxone at a participating pharmacy without a prescription through the statewide standing order. No prescription is needed.
